As an international advisory firm JP Weber group provides consulting and advisory services to clients from all over the world. Excellent communication in English is one of our priorities.

We have been cooperating with "The Queen's School of English" for over a year. Queens School developed for our company an individual language program that focuses on business and legal issues and helps our employees to improve their communication skills and extend their professional vocabulary.

We highly recommend Queens School as professional and experienced partner oriented towards its students and their needs.
